Profile/Objective

Determined, creative and results-orientated individual with a reputation for producing superior, high quality imagery. I am diligent with regards to my photographic shoot management, and I am looking for work with in events and documentary photography so that I can continue to expand my portfolio and website. I am also keen to continue assisting established photographers so that I can further develop my professional skills. My attention to detail allows me to fore fill clients briefs to a high professional standard.

I am fully committed to photography after deciding on a career change in 2009 to take up a university degree to gain the appropriate qualification and experience.
